

PRACTICAL GUIDE / BRAND

Give your products useful context.

Connect your brand presence to the right references and prepare relevant equipment conversations.

A brand account does not automatically grant catalogue administration. BBQGarage assigns representation permissions.

From your account to your first action

01

Create my brand account

02

Clarify my representation

03

Prepare communications

What you can do

Identify my representation · Available

Complete your account identity and clarify represented brands and territories with BBQGarage.

Follow my conversations · Available

Keep your BBQGarage conversations in one inbox.

Present launches and campaigns · Coming later

Tools to prepare visibility for product launches and commercial campaigns.

Inform relevant owners · Coming later

A future way to share useful information with owners of relevant equipment.

BRAND

Your first steps

Identify my representation

1. Choose the Brand profile.
2. Complete account information.
3. Administration must assign representation permissions.

Open my account >

Follow my conversations

1. Open your inbox.
2. Find existing conversations.
3. Reply in the relevant thread to preserve context.

Open my messages >

What comes next

These features are planned. They are not available yet and no release date is announced.

Public guide with no personal data. Availability reflects this version of the site.

bbqgarage.app/en/spaces/brand