

PRACTICAL GUIDE / RETAILER

Find the next home for your stock.

Sell to the public and trade with European retailers: stock can move beyond your shop.

BBQGarage must approve your company before professional stock and publication access. You select your delivery countries.

From your account to your first action

01

Complete my company

02

Get my account approved

03

Import then publish stock

What you can do

Sell my stock on BBQGarage · Available

New, promotion, outlet or used: prepare private stock, then choose offers to publish in PitMall.

Trade stock with other professionals · Available

Offer lots of slow-moving equipment or find opportunities from approved retailers across Europe.

Promote my events · Coming later

A calendar to present shop demonstrations, workshops and events.

Promote my shop to relevant customers · Coming later

Shop and promotion campaigns, with future targeting of compatible-equipment owners. Eligible stock promotions can already be published in PitMall.

RETAILER

Your first steps

Sell my stock on BBQGarage

1. Import your file and check the preview.
2. Check references, prices and quantities: importing publishes nothing.
3. Choose the relevant publication flow and review the offer before publishing.

Manage my stock >

Trade stock with other professionals

1. Get your company approved and set delivery countries.
2. Publish a proposal from stock or browse the market.
3. Use messaging to agree on the lot, price and transport.

Open the B2B market >

What comes next

These features are planned. They are not available yet and no release date is announced.

Public guide with no personal data. Availability reflects this version of the site.

bbqgarage.app/en/spaces/retailer